

Congressional Structured Settlements Caucus Briefing on Helping Injured Victims Live their Lives with Security and Dignity

Friday, July 25, 2014

Room: 2456 Rayburn
12:00 p.m.

Dear Colleague:

As co-chairs of the Congressional Structured Settlements Caucus, we cordially invite you and your staff to a briefing on Friday, July 25, 2014 at 12:00 p.m. (noon) in 2456 Rayburn House Office Building.

This informational session is intended to provide a helpful overview of how structured settlements help survivors live with security and dignity. Panelists will also share insight on structured settlement processes and negotiations. The briefing will provide an important overview of the important legal, technical, financial and economic security issues and challenges facing injury victims and their families.

Speakers will include:

- + Opening remarks by Congressman Jim Sensenbrenner, Co-Chair of the Congressional Structured Settlements Caucus
- + Charles “Buster” Joyner, President of Atlas Settlements
- + Henry Strong, President of JMW Settlements
- + Mark Perriello, President of the American Association of People with Disabilities

We hope you will join us in this effort to educate and inform others of the importance of structured settlements in this new and important Caucus. If you would like more information about the Congressional Structured Settlements Caucus, or would like to become a member, please contact DeCarlo McLaren with Congressman Lewis at DeCarlo.McLaren@mail.house.gov or x5-3801, or Amy Bos with Congressman Sensenbrenner at Amy.Bos@mail.house.gov or x5-5101.

Sincerely,

John Lewis, Co-chair
Member of Congress
